송금에 관한 협정 WIRE TRANSFER AGREEMENT

You ("You", "Your", "the customer") hereby appoint PCB BANK (the "Bank") your agent for the purpose of effecting a fund transfer per the instructions on the front of this Agreement.

Fund transfers are subject to Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code, as adopted by the state whose law applies to the account which you are using for the funds transfer service ("Article 4A").

When a fund transfer request ("Request") contains a name and account number, payment may be made by the Bank and/or by other banks to which a Request is forwarded based solely on the account number even if the account number and/or routing number identifies a different beneficiary or beneficiary's bank.

When you direct the funds received from you to be remitted in foreign currency, the Bank may, in its sole discretion, convert said funds received from you into said foreign currency at the Bank's selling rate on the day such funds are received.

You acknowledge and agree that when consumers send a wire denominated in U.S. dollars to an account denominated in a foreign currency, an intermediary bank or the receiving bank may convert the wire into the applicable foreign currency and the Bank may receive compensation in connection with any such conversion. When this occurs, the intermediary bank or the receiving bank determines in their discretion the currency exchange rate. The Bank is not responsible for the exchange rate set by an intermediary bank or the receiving bank. Moreover, for business customers, if you transfer funds in U.S. dollars to a non-U.S. dollar account, your payment may be converted into the local currency by any originating, intermediary or receiving bank, payment system or payment service provider, including the Bank or an affiliate, as applicable. The Bank and/or an affiliate include a mark-up or fee on such currency conversion and may profit in connection with any such currency conversion.

The said Request may be made by the Bank through its customary channels, and the Bank is absolved from any and all liabilities for loss arising from any cause beyond its control, including but not limited to the following:

- (a) The act, failure, or neglect of any agent or correspondent selected by the Bank for the funds transfer thereof;
- (b) Any delay, error, omission or failure of communications or our systems;
- (c) The acts or edicts of any government or governmental agency or other group or groups exercising governmental powers, whether de jure or defacto.
- (d) The negligence of the customer or the breach of this Agreement by the customer.
- (e) Any ambiguity or inaccuracy in any instruction or in the information set forth in this Agreement given to the Bank by the customer.

Provided that the Bank has complied with this Agreement, the customer agrees to indemnify and hold the Bank and its directors, officers, employees, agents and attorneys harmless against any claim of a third party arising from or in connection with this Agreement. The customer also agrees to take any and all reasonable action to mitigate any potential or actual Bank loss or liability hereunder. The Bank will not be liable for direct, consequential, or punitive damages or losses of any kind.

The Bank shall be under no obligation to obtain the receipt of the payee. The Bank on request will use its best effort to trace payment. No request for tracing shall be made prior to three (3) weeks from date of this order.

The Bank shall not be liable to make any refund prior to receipt by it of continuation of order of cancellation from the correspondent, agent or sub-agent engaged by the Bank to effect the transmittal and in the case of funds already converted, only on the basis of the Bank's buying rate on the day refund is made less the expenses of the Bank, its correspondent and agents. The Bank may discharge said liability, if any, by assigning to me its interest in any credit which may be established as a result of this order with its correspondent, agent or sub-agent.

You agree to pay to the Bank all applicable fund transfer fees upon demand. If you have an account with the Bank, you acknowledge and agree that the Bank may charge the transaction and all applicable fund transfer fees to your account. Bank is not liable for any failed transaction if you do not have sufficient funds in your account. You further acknowledge and agree that the Bank's fund transfer fees are subject to change without notice.
